THE COPING CENTRE

Join us for an inspiring journey towards personal and professional growth with renowned Thanatologist Dr. Alan Wolfelt, Founder of The Center for Loss and Life Transition

Exploring Grief after Suicide:

A Workshop for Caregivers with Dr. Alan Wolfelt

Presented by The Coping Centre
www.copingcentre.com 519-650-0852

About the Seminar

Suicide is death by just another name, but the implications and stigma that surround its mystery and aftermath are strong enough to touch every facet of our lives and of society.

Come join us as we explore a variety of important sub-topics that will enhance your helping role in supporting suicide survivors.

About the Presenter

Dr. Alan Wolfelt has been recognized as one of North America's leading death educators and grief counselors. His books have sold more than a million copies worldwide and have been translated into many languages. He founded the Center for Loss in 1985 to offer education and support both to grievors and bereavement caregivers. He is known around the world for his compassionate messages of hope and healing as well as his companioning philosophy of grief care. Dr. Wolfelt speaks on grief-related topics, offers trainings for caregivers, and has written many bestselling books and other resources on grief for both caregivers and grieving people.
